NETWORKS

YearOne Mentorship Finalist

January 2021

Selected from nearly 800 candidates as a YearOne finalist.

- YearOne recruits self-taught coders and engineering bootcamp graduates with a rigorous 2-step technical interview. Once finalists are chosen to join the program, they are coached and mentored throughout their job search and given opportunities to apply directly to partner companies that are hiring non-traditional software engineers. Upon placement with a partner company, finalists receive 6-months of on-the-job mentorship to help support them in the early days of their new career.
